

NICK CLARKE

SENIOR CONSULTANT

ABOUT NICK

With over 20 years in senior management roles in Queensland Local Government and 15 years in policing, Nick joined the MPG team in 2017. Nick notably has held the roles of Director of the National LGMA and Queensland LGMA as well as General Manager Organisational Services/ Governance at Redland City Council from 2009-2017.

On his arrival in Australia, Nick held management positions with the Queensland Environmental Protection Agency and Brisbane City Council from 1997 to 2009. He has worked on a management consultancy project in Switzerland and worked his way to the role of Senior Investigations Manager (Chief Inspector) within the Metropolitan Police in London. Through this extensive experience, Nick has gained valuable skills including an excellent understanding of how governments work at local, state and national levels, executive leadership skills including performance management, corporate governance and emergency management, to name just a few.

Since joining MPG, Nick has worked on a range of jobs including Corporate Governance services such as corporate and strategic planning, operational planning, risk management, investigations and delegation register reviews. He has also completed Organisational Performance, continuous improvement projects and Human Resources services including training needs analysis and performance management.

CORE CAPABILITIES

- Governance
- Compliance
- Corporate Planning
- Operational Planning
- Policy Review and Development
- Organisational Development
- Strategic Planning
- Change Management
- Business Process Improvement
- Systems Review

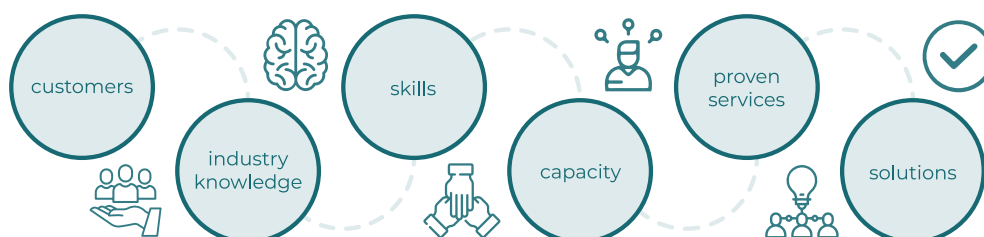

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- Fellow, Local Government Managers Australia
- Director, LGMA National 2007-2010
- Director, LGMA Queensland 2005-2012 (President 2010-2012; Deputy President 2007-2010)
- Director, Logan/Redlands Regional Development Australia 2011-2015 (Treasurer 2012-2015)

QUALIFICATIONS

- Master of Science – Civil Emergency Management, University of Hertfordshire

CORE VALUES

Connect with Nick on LinkedIn